Threads of Awakening Hill Road Library

Tuesday, November 14
5:00 pm

Ventura County author Leslie Rinchen-Wongmo discusses her recent book, Threads of Awakening, which details her years practicing traditional Tibetan textile art. Through her remarkable journey, she discovered that a path is made by walking it, and some of the best paths are made by walking off course. Leslie will reveal the unique stitches of an ancient needlework tradition and introduce the Buddhist deities it depicts.

Wise Owls is a quarterly Book Club for adults who enjoy reading children's literature.

Winter meeting:

Tuesday, January 16, 5 to 6 pm

Winter selection: Brown Girl
Dreaming by Jacqueline Woodson

Raised in South Carolina and New York, Woodson always felt halfway home in each place. In vivid poems, she shares what it was like to grow up as an African American in the 1960s & 1970s.

Do you know about the FOL Book Group that discusses any or even all the books they read in the past month?

This long term group is seeking new members.
Right now we meet on Zoom. In the past, we rotated hosts, meeting at each other's homes or a meeting room. We may or may not go back to in person meetings.
