

SHE RULED THE MEN WHO RULED THE WORLD!

Cleopatra: The Exhibition & Mysteries of Egypt The California Science Center & IMAX Thursday, November 8, 2012

See the largest collection of Cleopatra-era artifacts ever assembled in the U.S. including gold jewelry, large stone monuments, & more! Artifacts lost for nearly 2,000 years under layers of sand in the sea reveal the life and time of Cleopatra.

Join San Buenaventura Friends of the Library & Museum of Ventura County/Docent Volunteer Council members on a day trip to Los Angeles to see Cleopatra: The Exhibition!

Important Info

Meeting Place: Ventura County Museum parking lot, 100 East Main Street

Time: Motor coach departs promptly @ 8:30 a.m. Please arrive 10 minutes prior to departure. Departure promptly @ 3:00 p.m. for Ventura.

Picnic or lunch at on-site eateries available.

Cost: $55; Includes transportation, exhibit, movie admission, and snacks on the bus.

SBFOL and DVC members will receive preference for reservations until October 1. Beginning October 2, available space will be filled by non-members on a 1st come 1st served basis. Your check is your reservation.

Limited space, so reserve early!

SBFOL Members and Guests:
Send reservation form & checks payable to:
SBFOL
P.O. Box 403
Ventura, CA 93002

For additional information call:
SBFOL: Joanne @ cell# 650-5266

DVC Members and Guests:
Send reservation form & checks payable to:
DVC, Barbara Niles
6322 Fremont St.
Ventura, CA 93003

For additional information call DVC:
Barbara Niles @ 644-6551 or Loretta DuBois
cell# 405-2528

RESERVATION FORM: cut off & return with your payment

Name: _____

Guests: _____

Contact Phone: _____ email: _____

Please include separate checks for Guests